Since 1992, the mission of Project QUEST has been to strengthen the economy by developing highly qualified employees for in-demand occupations that offer a living wage, benefits, and a career path.

In 2015, QUEST served 1088 participants by assisting with tuition, fees, textbooks, supplies, childcare, transportation, and emergency assistance. The program placed 362 individuals that represent 26 demand occupations ranging from Healthcare to Information Technology to Professional Trades. The average wage per hour for a QUEST graduate in 2015 was $21.40/ hour. Over the next five years, these placements will yield a Return on Investment (ROI) of $17.67.
